

PLANTS TO TAKE DOWN – These are susceptible to fungus and should be removed

Iris, Bearded or German
Phlox paniculata–Garden Phlox

Monarda – Bee Balm
Roses

Peony
Tomato

PERENNIALS TO LEAVE UP – As they are evergreen, woody or have high crowns

Alchemilla – Lady's Mantle
Aurinia – Basket of Gold
Brunnera
Ferns
Iberis – Candytuft
Lavendula
Peony – Tree
Salvia Argentea
Yucca

Artemesia – Silver Brocade
Asarum – Ginger
Campanula carpatica
Heuchera – Coral Bells
Lamium
Lavendar
Perovskia – Russian Sage
Vinca minor – Periwinkle

Artemesia – Powis Castle
Bergenia
Euonymus – Winter Creeper
Hepatica
Lamiastrum Vine
Pachysandra
Phlox subulata – Creeping
Thyme

PERENNIALS/SEED PODS TO LEAVE UP FOR WINTER INTEREST

Aster
Baptisia – False Blue Indigo
Echinacea – Coneflower
Hydrangeas
Rose Hips

Astilbe
Belamcanda – Candy Lily
Eupatorium - Joe Pye Weed
Iris, Siberian
Rudbeckia

Allium
Chelone
Grasses
Penstemon- Husker Red
Sedum

PLANTS TO SAVE IN A ROOT CELLAR

AS A PLANT

Australian Tree Fern
Banana
Brugmansia
Fig

AS A CORM

Acidanthera - Peacock Lily
Calla Lily
Canna lily
Colocasia E.Ear - corm not seed
Dahli
Eucomis – Pineapple Lily

AS A HARVEST

Herbs
Houseplants
Potato Vine – for edible tuber
Sage – for smudge sticks